1: Roth--66
116, 231, 152

(No date) 1890

Tasmanians

"With regard to their treatment of animals, Davies says: 'They appeared much to enjoy the tortures of a wounded bird or beast, nor did I ever see them put such to death to relieve it from its misery;' and West (II. p. 89) makes a similar statement."